

Dr. Elizabeth Cipes Chisholm joins her mother, Dr. Monica Cipes, in pediatric dental practice

Dr. Elizabeth Cipes Chisholm, a third generation dentist, a graduate of Duffy, Sedgwick and Conard has joined the West Hartford pediatric dental practice of her mother, Dr. Monica H. Cipes.

Dr. Chisholm completed her dental education and specialty training in pediatric dentistry at the University of Connecticut School of Dental Medicine and Connecticut Children's Medical Center. While a resident at CCMC her research focused on improving the dental experience for children with Autism Spectrum Disorder.

Dr. Chisholm, a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of the University of Massachusetts, graduated from the University of Connecticut School of Dental Medicine in 2008. She was the recipient of several notable awards including: the Pierre Fauchard Award for leadership and accomplishment in the advancement of the dental profession, the Community Dentistry and Dental Public Health Award from the American Association of Public Health Dentistry, the American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry Pre-doctoral Student Award and the Dr. Loeb Prize awarded for leadership in dentistry.

Dr. Monica Cipes has been providing care for children in the community for over 25 years, and is one of the most respected pediatric dentists in the country. She is active in the American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry and is a past President of the American Board of Pediatric Dentistry, the organization that grants specialty board certification to pediatric dentists.

Dr. Chisholm will be seeing patients in the office at 798 Farmington Avenue, West Hartford.
