

Drs. Cipes and Chisholm honored by Connecticut Magazine as Top Dentists 2012

Monica Cipes, D.M.D., M.S.D., and Elizabeth Cipes Chisholm, D.M.D., were recognized by Connecticut Magazine as Top Dentists in 2012. Winners were chosen by asking Connecticut dentists who they would send their loved ones to for care. Drs. Cipes and Chisholm were pleased to be honored by their peers in this way.

Dr. Cipes has practiced pediatric dentistry in Greater Hartford for 20 years. She is a Diplomate of the American Board of Pediatric Dentistry and a member of the attending staff at Connecticut Children's Medical Center in Hartford. Dr. Cipes is active among her professional peers and a member in good standing of several professional organizations. Among her many achievements, she served a year as president and six years on the American Board of Pediatric Dentistry, and serves on numerous committees including the Council on Continuing Education for the American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry.

Dr. Chisholm is a Diplomate of the American Board of Pediatric Dentistry and is also a member of the attending staff at Connecticut Children's Medical Center. Dr. Chisholm is active among her professional peers and a member in good standing of several professional organizations. She lectures at UCONN School of Dental Medicine in the Geriatrics and Special Care Patients course.
